

1.INERTIA:-

The time has come yet again for the mechanics enthusiasts to come and battle it out in Mechanical Departmental quiz competition INERTIA .This is your one chance to prove yourselves to be the know-it-alls of mechanical engineering.

It contains two rounds :-

1. Prelims Round:-

This round contains 30 questions of difficulty level varying from easy to medium .Each question will have some points allotted to it. Top 15 participants will be selected for the mains.

2. Mains:-

This round also contains 30 questions. Questions will be of higher level with respect to prelims. Each question will have some points allotted to it. Top 3 participants will be declared as winner of Inertia.

Participation:-

- 1.The event is open for students of all streams from all years.
- 2.There is no teams, each participant will attempt the quiz individually .
- 3.Participants can get themselves registered in advance (online- link will be provided on the poster).
- 4.Participants are required to bring valid college id during the event.

Rules:-

- 1. Participants are required to be present at the specified timing of the event otherwise they will be disqualified.
- 2. Participants are not allowed to access Internet during the event. Any participants found cheating will be disqualified immediately.
- 3. The teams will have to maintain a code of conduct and ensure the smooth progress of event.

Judging and winning:-

1. Only 1st to 3rd positions will be awarded certificates and momentous.
2. The results of elementary round will be posted on event website & the selected participants will also be informed through e-mail.

